The story of Guru Nanak	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=twkJ1pc5BvU

Sticky Knowledge

- During the forming of the Khalsa, some Sikhs were prepared to sacrifice their lives.
- Guru Nanak expected Sikhs to give a lot for and to their religion.
- Sikh services are always followed by a meal called the Langar. The Langar is important to Sikhs because it is a meal that symbolises the Sikh belief that all people are equal.
- The five key Sikh beliefs:

God is in everything (Sikhs see God as an energy source rather than as a physical entity)

It is a Sikh's duty to serve others

All people should be treated as equals

Sikhs should share what they can with others

Sikhs should earn their living honestly

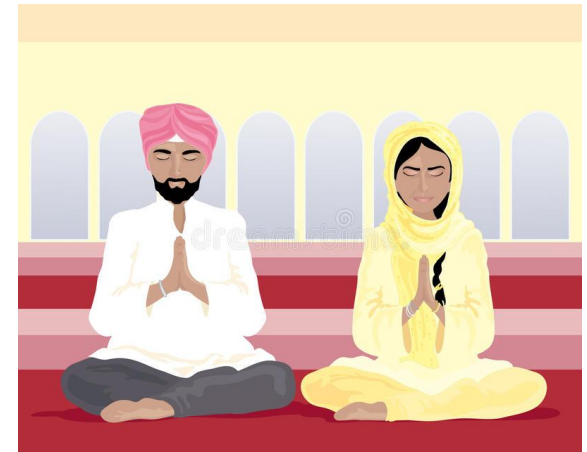

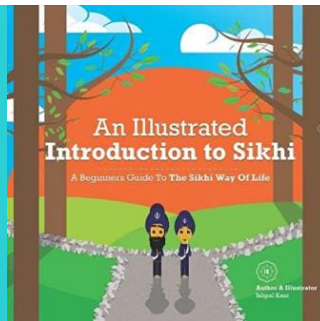

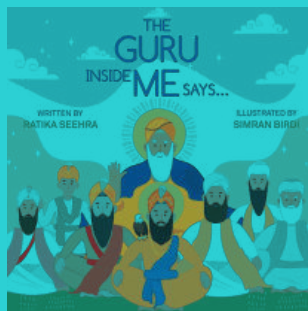

Subject: RE Topic: How far would a Sikh go for his/her religion? Y5/6

Activities you could do at home:

Research a famous Sikh man or woman on the internet.

Try making or tasting some of the Sikh food eaten in the langar.

Sticky Knowledge

- Jesus' life had a purpose.
- That Christians believe that Jesus was the Incarnation of God sent to the Earth to show people how to lead good lives, to die as a sacrifice, so they could be forgiven and come back to life again to prove to Christians that they could also have life after death.
- The following events and how they link to Jesus' death: Palm Sunday, Jesus teaching in the Temple, overturning the traders' tables, The Last Supper, bread and wine, Judas' betrayal, Peter's denial, praying on the Mount of Olives, arrest, four trials (Jewish council, Pilate, Herod, Pilate again), crucifixion, burial in tomb. Use Luke's Gospel Chs. 20- 23.

The gurdwara	https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/religious-studies-ks2-the-gurdwara/z4qc8xs

Sticky Knowledge:

- The 5Ks (kangha - comb, kirpan - sword, kara - bracelet, kachera - shorts, kesh - uncut hair).
- That there were 10 living Gurus, and that there is a holy book called the Guru Granth Sahib. This is because there will be no more living Gurus and Sikhs believe that God is talking through the Guru Granth Sahib.
- Ways in which the holy book is treated with respect e.g. it is put to bed in its own bedroom, it is fanned, held above people's heads etc.
- That Sikhs also pray and worship in the Gurdwara.
- It is an important part of Sikh teaching that everyone is equal. God's love is for everyone, so no one is better than anyone else. Men and women and people from different backgrounds should always be treated in the same way.
- The importance of Sewa - Sikhs feel closer to God through helping others.

The 10 commandments	https://request.org.uk/resource/986c7dd5fb8b2a8395f582195888af/

Sticky Knowledge

- The Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:2-17)
- Galatians 5:14 'love your neighbour as yourself'.
- Galatians 5:22-26 states that if a Christian is committed to God and allows the Holy Spirit to live in them, they will be displaying love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control and not jealousy or conceitedness.
- That many Christians show commitment to God by attending church every Sunday/worshipping God.
- Christians also show commitment through taking communion- this helps Christians to remember Jesus dying for them on the cross and by taking communion it shows their commitment to God.
